Re: Engagement Letter

Dear Ms. Simmers:

Thank you for considering The Law Office of William J. Factor, Ltd. ("FactorLaw") as counsel for Cherry Logistics Corporation ("Client") in the case filed against it by Associated Bank and in a bankruptcy case to be filed in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois (the "Current Engagement").

FactorLaw would be honored to represent Client in the Current Engagement, subject to the following terms and conditions. If acceptable to Client, please execute a copy of this agreement on the last page and return it to us, along with the retainer discussed below, after which the Current Engagement will commence and will be guided by this agreement.

1. Limited Scope. To avoid uncertainty about FactorLaw's role and the identity of its Client, the Current Engagement is limited and does not entail representing Client in any matters other than the Current Engagement or representing any other entity or any other business, including any of the owners, officers or shareholders of Cherry Logistics Corp.

July 27, 2017

Client. As we have discussed, FactorLaw does not represent you or Michael Healy.

2. Professional Fees. Fees for the Current Engagement will depend upon the number of hours expended by FactorLaw professionals on the Current Engagement, multiplied by the applicable hourly rate for each professional working on the Current Engagement. At present, FactorLaw charges hourly rates between $375 and $200 for the services of its attorneys and it charges $100 per hour for the services of legal assistants. Rates are reviewed periodically and are subject to change, although we do not anticipate any rate changes at this time.

It is not possible to determine with any degree of precision the total fees and other charges that Clients are likely to incur in connection with the Current Engagement. Thus, any estimate of total fees always carries the understanding that, unless we agree otherwise in writing, it does not represent a maximum, minimum, or fixed-fee quotation. The ultimate cost frequently is more or less than the amount estimated and often is a function of matters outside of our control, particularly when litigation is involved.

3. Expenses. FactorLaw also charges for actual out of pocket expenses advanced on Clients' behalf. FactorLaw generally limits out of pocket expenses to costs that would not have been incurred but for FactorLaw's work on Clients' behalf. FactorLaw does not charge for routine facsimile, telephone, and computerized legal research within the scope of its subscription to LEXIS.

4. Retainer. Based upon the limited information we have regarding the nature and scope of the Current Engagement, FactorLaw requires a $25,000 advance payment retainer to start working. FactorLaw acknowledges that it has received the $25,000 advance payment retainer from Client.

Under Illinois law, there are different types of retainers. The client alone has the option to select what type of retainer agreement to use. The client may choose to have the money placed in a security retainer, under which the money remains the property of the client and is placed in a client trust account until such time as it is paid to FactorLaw for services and costs rendered in FactorLaw's representation, as governed by the terms of this agreement. Alternatively, the funds may be considered an advanced payment retainer, and deemed earned upon receipt and not held in a trust account, although any funds that are unused at the end of the engagement are returned.

Cherry Logistics Corp.

FactorLaw requires an advanced payment retainer to represent Client in the Current Engagement. We generally require the advance payment retainer for new clients and for bankruptcy matters. Accordingly, the retainer will not be held in a client trust account and the funds will be deemed earned upon receipt, except that any funds remaining at the conclusion of the Current Engagement will be returned.

5. Billing and Payment. If Client's account becomes delinquent and Client has not made satisfactory payment terms, FactorLaw may withdraw, or seek to withdraw, from the Current Engagement consistent with applicable rules. Client will remain responsible for payment of our legal fees rendered and charges incurred prior to such withdrawal. Client agrees to reimburse FactorLaw for any fees and expenses, including legal fees, incurred by FactorLaw to enforce the terms of this engagement letter.

If Client's account becomes delinquent and satisfactory payment terms are not arranged, FactorLaw may withdraw, or seek to withdraw, from the Current Engagement consistent with applicable rules. Client will remain responsible for payment of our legal fees rendered and charges incurred prior to such withdrawal. If FactorLaw commences litigation to collect any fees and expenses incurred on behalf of Client, Client agree to pay such legal fees and expenses.

Client acknowledges that the financial arrangements set forth in this letter have been agreed upon to induce us to act as the Client's attorneys. By accepting this arrangement, Client will be deemed to have consented in advance to allowing us to withdraw in the event of nonpayment, and expressly waive the attorney/client privilege concerning relevant portions of this letter so as to permit us to withdraw as the Client's attorneys.

6. Professional Judgment and Written Reliance. At all times, FactorLaw and its attorneys will endeavor to represent Client zealously and act on Client's behalf to the best of our ability. Whenever FactorLaw provides Client with an expression regarding the potential outcome of a matter, we will use our best professional judgment. However, we cannot guarantee results or the outcome of any matter or issue. Any expression of our professional judgment regarding the Current Engagement or the potential outcome is, of course, limited by our knowledge of the facts and based on the law at the time of expression. It is also subject to any unknown or uncertain factors or conditions beyond our control.

Cherry Logistics Corp.

Any expressions of judgment or views are limited solely to Client, and may not be shared with any other entity, nor may any other entity rely upon such expressions.

Because of the complex nature of legal matters, we will endeavor to counsel Client in writing on material legal matters affecting Client. Client understand that unless legal advice provided by FactorLaw is given in writing, it may be misinterpreted and thus Client agree not to rely upon any advice from FactorLaw except to the extent in writing. Client also agree to request advice in writing on important matters concerning which Client may rely upon FactorLaw's advice.

7. Illinois Law. This agreement is to be construed and interpreted by the laws of the State of Illinois. FactorLaw and Client agree that any court action between the parties to enforce the terms of this agreement or resolve any dispute related to this Agreement shall be initiated solely in the appropriate state or federal courts with jurisdiction for or over Cook County, Illinois.

8. Termination of Representation. Client may terminate FactorLaw's representation at any time, with or without cause, by notifying us and subject to court approval when required for matters in litigation. We will return Client's papers and other property promptly upon receipt of a request for those materials unless they are appropriately subject to a lien under applicable law. We will retain our files pertaining to the engagement, including our drafts, notes, internal memos, and work product as permitted by applicable law. Client's termination of our services will not affect Client's responsibility for payment for legal services rendered and other charges incurred before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter.

9. Entire Agreement. This document contains our entire agreement pertaining to our retention by Client. We have made no representations, guaranties or promises regarding the disposition of any phase of the Client's matters and all expressions relative to such an outcome are preliminary and subject to further due diligence, discussion and advice.

10. Conclusion of Representation. When we complete the services for which Client has retained us, our attorney-client relationship for that matter will be terminated. If Client later retains us to perform further or additional services, our attorney-client relationship will be revived subject to these terms of engagement unless we change the terms in writing at that time.

Cherry Logistics Corp.

THE LAW OFFICE OF WILLIAM J. FACTOR, LTD.

Very truly yours,

William J. Factor
